Profile:

L'quisha Briggs is the Homeownership Manager at the Milwaukee Community Land Trust (MCLT), where she is dedicated to helping individuals and families achieve and maintain homeownership. With a strong commitment to affordable housing and community development, L'quisha plays a crucial role in ensuring that MCLT homeowners have the support and resources they need to thrive.

Background:

L'quisha brings extensive experience in housing counseling and community engagement to her role at MCLT. She has worked with various non-profits and housing organizations in Milwaukee, focusing on providing support to low- and moderate-income families. Her expertise includes homebuyer education, financial literacy, and program management.

Role at MCLT:

As the Homeownership Manager, L'quisha is responsible for:

- Homebuyer Assistance: Guiding prospective homeowners through the process of purchasing an affordable home within the land trust, offering personalized counseling and support.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING FOR EVERYONE. FOREVER.
